

IT Technician

Education/Experience

- Third level education in an IT related area And / Or
- Proven experience in similar roles below

Successful candidate will be responsible for developing and maintaining the IT infrastructure with Moyola Precision Engineering Ltd.

Roles includes the following but not limited to:

- Installation of new computers to a secure network
- Fault Diagnosis and repair of computers and networks
- General network support, maintenance, low level cabling.
- Installation and management of printers, scanners, barcode readers etc
- Ensure cybersecurity of network and devices
- Windows and Office 365 Active Directory Management
- Management of SQL Databases
- Creation of SQL Views with links to Office 365 applications
- Management of the company's ERP system (Syspro) and associated software solutions (training will be provided)

Experience with any following skills or programs would be a distinct advantage:

- Office 365 administration
- Microsoft Server and Windows
- SQL Server
- Low coding experience

Personal Skills

- Be self driven and motivated to progress with the company
- Have sound planning and organisational skills and work to schedule.
- Work within a team and be capable of delivering agreed results.
- Monitor, evaluate and report on progress.